PRESTON COUNTY... ONE OF THE

HAD 17 OVERDOSE DEATHS AND OVER 60 FELONY DRUG

THAT DOESN'T SEEM TO BE GETTING ANY BETTER.

"It's not like you can get one person and you solve the problem. I actually liken it more to. you have a yard full of weeds and you pull one weed and 10 more grow. I mean and that's the same thing with drug problems nationwide."

"Preston County prosecuting Melvin Snyder says it's place like this. along the river where most drug deals occur.
And in Monongalia County it's places like under this bridge or residential parking lots where drug paraphernalia can be found. Star City Police Chief Vic Propst says there are at least 5 or 6 drug overdoses in Mon County in just one week.”

THE STAR CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT AND MON METRO DRUG TASK FORCE HAVE BEEN MAKING ARRESTS IN THIS HOTEL FOR DRUG DEALS. PROPST SAYS A LARGE ISSUE IS HOW DANGEROUS THE DRUG IS.

“Heroin is laced with so many different compounds, phentonal, carphentonal.

It’s just, it’s a killer and they are putting this stuff directly into their veins.

They’re putting their trust in their drug dealer. and that’s a bad person to trust.”

WITH 35 DRUG OVERDOSE DEATHS IN 2016, SOME PEOPLE IN MONONGALIA COUNTY TAKE THE DRUG EPIDEMIC VERY PERSONAL.

“I personally know of at least 10 people that have died in the last year due to drug overdose.”

BOTH MONONGALIA AND PRESTON COUNTIES ARE HEIGHTENING THEIR EFFORTS TO KEEP THESE DRUGS OFF THE STREETS.

“Nat Sound Hold”

WEST VIRGINIA IS HOME TO THE HIGHEST OVERDOSE RATE IN THE UNITED STATES AT FORTY-ONE DEATHS PER ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND PEOPLE. IN HOPES TO COMBAT THESE NUMBERS, A ONE-MILLION DOLLAR FEDERAL GRANT IS PAYING FOR THE NALOXONE, OR NARCAN, WHICH CAN HELP REVERSE RESPIRATORY DEPRESSION CAUSED BY OPIOID OVERDOSES.

“So getting the antidote, the naloxone out to the people to where they can give it immediately is vital, so we definitely welcome this plan. Again, we just want to re-emphasize that it’s not the cure.”

EMERGENCY MEDICAL PERSONNEL CURRENTLY CARRY THE ANTIDOTE, BUT THIS GRANT WILL MAKE IT MORE WIDELY-AVAILABLE TO OTHER FIRST RESPONDERS AND TO PEOPLE AT HIGH RISK.

“Just last week, roughly 4,000 naloxone kits were distributed to high-priority areas in the state such as Huntington, Charleston, Wheeling and right here in Morgantown.”

“Dropping down the naloxone overdose kits throughout the state of West Virginia, I think is a great example of what a state should be doing to counteract this overdose epidemic.”

“The issue is pretty bad and it has been for a while now. So it’s really encouraging to see the state attacking the issue head on and hopefully it will cut down this trend.”

MEANWHILE, LOCAL E-M-S ADMINISTERED OVER FOUR THOUSAND DOSES OF NARCAN LAST YEAR. THAT’S AN INCREASE OF ALMOST A THOUSAND DOSES FROM 2015. BRETT ANDERSON, W-V-U NEWS, MORGANTOWN.

appointment. She was in the Detroit Public School system where she pushed charter schools and vouchers. And they're public education has suffered tremendously since she left."

THE AFT DID PROTEST DEVOS' NOMINATION BECAUSE OF HER HEADLINE IDEAS LIKE VOUCHER PLANS AND CHARTER SCHOOLS ...BECAUSE... BRUNETT SAYS THOSE PROGRAMS COULD ALSO DRAIN PUBLIC SCHOOL FUNDING IN WEST VIRGINIA.

"For one we're very rural. We have some counties with one high school and one elementary school. So trying to put a charter in one of those counties would be financially impossible."

"West Virginia is the thirty ninth largest public school system in the nation...serving more than 280-thousand students across 760 public schools. But the quality of education still varies widely across the country...and that's why some parents are concerned for their children's future under this new administration."

"I just don't think in our rural area and for as many times as it's been presented as a tangible outfit for the state. We definitely need some improvement I just don't think charter schools are to establish that."
